PEACOCK VISUAL ARTS TOUR

WEDNESDAY 25th MAY 2016, 6.30 pm

Peacock Visual Arts began in 1974 as Peacock Printmakers (Aberdeen) Ltd. and was established by a group of artists led by Arthur Watson, who wanted to have a facility in the city for making fine art prints. Peacock Visual Arts now employs 11 members of staff and an ever growing band of volunteers. Over the years Peacock Visual Arts has attracted many artists to work in its lively and busy workshop. The outcome has been a continuous and steady stream of exciting and high quality innovative work. Peacock Visual Arts now has the widest range of visual arts production facilities openly available in Scotland and provides expert training in their use. Although Peacock Visual Arts continues to take pride in the quality of its technical and digital facilities and skills of its workshop team, its focus is now to bring artists and public together to share and explore ideas and to make and present art in new ways. It organises many artists, participatory, printmaking and exhibition projects each year and its innovative work in visual arts education has won numerous awards. Full information about everything they do is available at: <http://www.peacockvisualarts.com/>

David McCracken, Print Curator will treat us to a talk about their facilities and Michael Waight, Master Printmaker will show off his skills in a print making demonstration. We will get the chance to have a look round the gallery and enjoy a glass of wine and some relaxed networking. The address is 21 Castle Street.
